

Today we celebrate International Women's Day with an ode to one of our most noteworthy passengers. Sonia Pressman Fuentes was one of the founders of the National Organization for Women (NOW). She has been a feminist activist for over fifty years, writing and speaking on women's rights throughout the U.S. and the world.

The course of her own history was altered entirely when she emigrated from Nazi-occupied Germany to Antwerp, Belgium with her immediate family and later travelled on the Red Star Line, arriving in New York City with her parents and brother in 1934. How did the Red Star Line affect the course of her life? Find out more here >> <http://www.redstarline.be/.../sonia-fuentes-2-million-passeng...>
